Introducing your monthly credit bills

The NBML Heat Network

Metering & billing services for heating & hot water

customerservice@insite-energy.co.uk

Credit billing ensures you only pay for what you use through remote readings from your heat meter, alongside your daily standing charge.

Welcome to The NBML Heat Network

Your new home is served by a heat network. Heat networks are an efficient, low carbon method of delivering heat to buildings. Instead of every home having an individual gas boiler, there is one central plant room generating energy into heating and hot water, which feeds all connected properties. This heat network is managed by your heat provider, Newington Butts Management Limited.

Communal heat networks explained

Your heat provider, or building owner, manages the energy supply to a plant room, which contains low carbon technology producing heating and hot water.

Via a network of insulated pipes, the generated energy from this plant room is delivered through a Heat Interface Unit (HIU) which is installed in each property. This method of delivery means your heating system is robust and reliable - providing heating and hot water on demand.

Your HIU is connected to room thermostats and programmers, giving you control over your energy use. A heat meter connected to your HIU also measures the amount of heating and hot water you consume, so that you only pay for what you use.

About The NBML Heat Network

Billing type: Credit billing

Credit billing explained

We remotely collect heat meter readings through an Automatic Meter Reading (AMR) system to track your energy consumption.

Monthly bills, comprising energy usage and daily standing charges, are sent to you via email or post within the first two weeks of each month. You can also access your bills and payment history via our online customer portal, my insite, where you can also make payments and update vour account details.

In the absence of automatic meter readings, bills are based on estimates. You can provide actual meter readings through our 'Submit a meter read' form or my insite. Heat meters are typically located inside or near the HIU in the utility cupboard.

Your charges explained

Where we have been instructed to set your tariff, our goal is to set the most accurate charges possible. Utility tariffs are made up of two elements:

Daily standing charge

Your daily standing charge is the fixed charge passed on by your heat provider, which covers the cost of operating the heat network and delivering energy to your home. This is an annual fixed amount that is payable every day by all residents regardless of how much energy you use. This is typically comprised of two main elements:

1. Metering and billing costs

This is the cost of our services, alongside the cost of providing legally required periodic reporting to the Government.

2. The standing charge your heat provider incurs for the incoming bulk fuel used to generate the energy on-site.

Your standing charge may also contain the costs associated with operating and maintaining your heat network (this might also be included within your building's service charge).

Please note this is an example only. Your HIU and heat meter may look different to the one pictured above.

Energy charge

Your unit charge covers the cost of the energy generated in the communal plant room, and any associated energy losses. Your energy consumption is measured via the energy meters installed in your home, so you only pay for what you have used. You are charged for every kilowatt-hour (kWh) consumed within your property. The energy charge is typically comprised of two main elements:

1. Incoming energy price

This is the unit charge your heat provider pays to purchase the incoming bulk fuel for your development. This is what is used to generate your heating and hot water. By bulk-buying energy for all connected properties, your provider is usually able to get a better price per kWh than the average household organising its own supply.

2. System efficiency

This refers to energy losses that occur throughout a heat network. This is measured by how much energy is lost from the point the supply leaves the plant room to the point it comes out your tap or radiator. Your unit charge may also contain upfront costs of the plant room and any future equipment replacements or repairs needed to keep the heat network in operation (this might also be included in your building's service charge).

Please note

Your tariff is set and regularly reviewed to ensure the price is fair and any fees charged do not exceed the cost of providing energy to your home. Your heat provider cannot legally make a profit from your tariff.

Unfortunately, we are unable to change your tariff unless instructed to do so by your heat provider.

If your tariff is increasing, we will provide at least 31 days written notice prior to being applied. If your tariff is decreasing, we will provide at least 10 days notice. Your tariff is displayed on your bill.

Unless contracted, Insite Energy are unable to help you with the maintenance of the heating system within your property. For queries relating to your electricity and water supply, please contact your relevant suppliers.

Q: My bill is too high - can you investigate and send me a new one?

A: If your bill has an 'A' marked within the 'Heat Charges' section*, this shows that an actual reading has been taken from your heat meter and sent to Insite Energy remotely.

If your bill is based on actual readings from your heat meter, which we have retrieved remotely, we will unfortunately be unable to alter your charges.

*The heat charges section can be found on the back of your bill. For reference please check p.11, M.

Q: I'm moving out. What do I need to do?

A: It is important that you let us know exactly when you will be leaving your current address. If we do not receive an accurate move out date, your standing charges and energy usage are likely to be miscalculated in your final bill.

To make sure you only pay for what you have used, it's important to give us a heat meter read taken on the date you move out of your home. You will then receive your final bill and account closure confirmation letter from us in the post, or via email if you've been registered for e-billing. If you do not provide a 'move out' meter read, you are likely to receive an inaccurate final bill from us. It's easy to submit a final meter reading. You can send it to us via our 'Moving out' form found on our website, or you can take a photo of your heat meter's screen and send it to us at residata@insite-energy.co.uk.

If we do not receive all the necessary information to close your account, we are likely to bill you in error. Your heat provider or landlord may even withhold your deposit or take legal action until all outstanding bills and debts are settled.
